GREEN POINT.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mrs. Putnam of Syracuse, N. Y., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Herman Cole, whose death is expected at any time.

Haying has commenced here this week; on the whole it will be a pretty good crop. Mrs. A. Potter is visiting friends in Oswego, N. Y.

Mrs. Lawrence Lyons and Miss Ogden met very serious accident on Monday. While out driving the harness became detached and the horse took fright and became unmanageable, upsetting the buggy and very seriously mangle the occupants. There are hopes of their recovery.

Mr. Franklin Osborne is but very little if any better.

BETHLE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

We are living in an age of improvement. Our genial friend, Postmaster Robinson, is building a new cistern; he has in contemplation a new door yard fence which we must say is needed very much, he is also putting a new roof on his barn, but this is only a prelude to what is coming in the line of improvements and repairs on his fine premises.

Mr. J. T. Way is making rapid progress on his fine new brick residence. He has the brick work done and the roof on; it will be a fine structure when done, as Mr. Way is one of those men who when he does a job does it right, and he says this house is for himself. He is not erecting it for show but with an eye to comfort, convenience and durability. Suitable man, say we.

The next man we come to is Mr. A. B. Coolidge who is making extensive repairs to his outbuildings and the building a large addition to his barn; he has got a new pump also and it is painted red and looks gay. The next neighbor is Mr. McMullen who is also making large repairs.

Mr. John Crawford comes on with a new frame house. John has a new door yard fence in contemplation which will not cost any too quick as the old one has done duty for the last half a century or more.

Mr. G. Wrightway is erecting a mansion on the ridge. It is a fine structure, advanced in the course of construction to talk much about it yet but we guess it will be a stunner, but more anon. I guess this is enough in the building line, but we have lots more to follow.

Mrs. Jacob Foster has come home to her father's, Mr. Samuel Gardner. She is in very poor health.

Mrs. Reed has returned from Belleville, where she has been visiting friends for the last three or four weeks.

Mr. Herb. Way lost a fine cow.

There are several horses bad with the distemper around here.

Mr. & Mrs. Mack, daughter and son-in-law of Mrs. Sine, have been on a visit to friends here. They have returned to their home in Newlen.

LONSDALE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

There was a narrow escape of a party of river-drivers and others, who assembled on Kingsford bridge on Monday night for the purpose of having a little fun. The railing was filled on one side with men, it is said from 75 to 100, and dancing had just commenced on the bridge when it gave way, and all were hurt to the water below, a distance of ten feet, some being caught in the debris and badly bruised. Mr. Jas. Wheter was badly bruised, and it is said, lost $50 in cash with two checks each of $100 and his watch smashed; others were more or less hurt, but none seriously, though all were badly shaken up. Mr. John Francis being on hand at the time selected timber for a new bridge from the drive which was passing, immediately telegraphed to his men who are now at work, and will, no doubt, have a new bridge built as soon as possible.

Our pathmaker has his men at work on our streets again, doing estate labor. Last year the work done by him gave the best of satisfaction, he being a Scott Act man at the time and not craved alcohol. This year being so elated by again having the office, and again having command of such a force of men, together with money paid by some who chose to work under him, he was not before warning all he got on a spree, using abusive and profane language on the streets to the annoyance of many. On Monday a large number gathered and received his orders to draw stone on the streets where best and smoothest places were, nearly all of which will have to be removed, a quantity of which being left in front of Mr. Dennis Nealon's hotel making it difficult to pass; after which, it is said, he slept, and did not appear to give further orders until next morning, when on inspecting the work said: "He did not know what the d—l the boys drew the stone there for," and is large trying to make the work of some use, though most of it is worse than nothing. We hope he will become sane and remain so in future, both for his own good and his family.

A large number of men have been camped here for several days driving the Rathbun Co's lumber. It is said they will be through here to-day, Wednesday. They are a quiet lot of men and we will miss them.

THE IMPERIAL ELECTIONS.

The present representation of Ireland stands 86 Home Rulers and 17 Anties. No one contemplates any material change in the coming results, but there may be a slight fluctuation one way or the other. The battle for supremacy however, will be fought in Ulster alone. The Parnellites have made good use of the fact, that Ulster elected 17 Home Rulers to 16 Conservatives at the last general elections, to allow that condition of matters to continue undisputed. It will be interesting therefore, to bear in mind the facts respecting the seven constituencies in Ulster, in which the contests were so close last time; it is evident that pitched battles will be fought there within the next fortnight. Out of these seven closely contested Ulster seats the Conservatives carried three and the Parnellites four. The Tories only defeated Mr. Sexton in West Belfast by 35 votes; Mr. Justin McCarthy in Londonderry by 29 votes; and Mr. John Dillon in North Tyrone by 423 votes. The Parnellite prospects are reported good in the first two named seats. On the other hand the Parnellites elected William O'Brien by only 53 votes in South Tyrone; W. H. K. Redmond by 425 in North Fermanagh; W. J. Reynolds by 251 in East Tyrone; and in South Derry T. M. Healy had only 400 majority over the combined Liberal and Conservative opposition. As a portion of the Liberal vote is certain to go Home Rule there is little doubt about this seat; but O'Brien in South Tyrone is by no means safe. 77 Parnellites will be elected without opposition.

COMMUNICATIONS.

WICKED CONDUCT.

To the Editor of the Tribune.

DEAR SIR, — I am sorry that while young men of our village are resting their tired frames at noon hours and on the Sabbath, they do not spend their time in reading some good literature instead of learning the boys of eight or ten years of age the bad language which the little fellows are too young to understand. It is shocking to listen to the vile profanity which proceeds from the mouths of someurchins of the village, and to see even married men sit by and amuse themselves by laughing and encouraging them further in their bad language, instead of checking them and giving them good advice. One word to the woodyard frequenters. It were well if the Chief would scatter some of these dens of young men who think themselves good enough to amuse themselves by laughing and even machinists. I hope they will break up that wicked habit of spending the Sundays in gambling for coppers, and that married men especially who should have better sense, will set an example to others to refrain from there wicked practices.

SUBSCRIBER.

INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF AND DUMB.

To the Editor of the Tribune.

Kindly allow me to say to your readers that the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb at Belleville, is open to the deaf children of the Province, and every deaf mute child in Ontario, whether the parents are poor or rich, may share in the many advantages the Institution affords, such as tuition, board, care, &c. There are many parents of such children who do not know of this place, and persons who will inform them of what the Province has so generally provided for their children will confer a lasting obligation. Uneducated, a deaf mute child has no knowledge of language, is isolated, as it were, from the rest of mankind; is irresponsible and in many cases dangerous to the community; life is a blank without a ray of hope to illuminate the future. With an education such as may be had here, all this is changed and the mute is enabled to take his or her place as respectable members of society and law abiding citizens and learn the glorious life beyond. Over 700 mute children have been entered upon our books and the large majority of them spread over the Province bear testimony to the good work already accomplished. We have a full staff of capable, devoted teachers in the literary and industrial departments. We are doing all we can for those afflicted in this way and we are anxious to do whatever work of this kind there is to do. There will be room for who can come in September next, and in the meantime it will give me pleasure to supply application papers and necessary information to any one who may apply.

Yours faithfully

R. MATHISON, Superintendent.

VARIOUS TOPICS.

As to the relative merits of hard and soft steel rails, the investigations in Germany seem to leave the matter of wear indeterminate, with the conclusion that the wear of rails depends more upon the impurity of the steel than upon its hardness or softness.

Companies that have been organized in the West. One of them has this advertisement in a Kansas City newspaper: "The Black Pioneer Cyclone and Windstorm Company."

At a fireman's picnic in Chicago the other evening three young men called for lemon beer at one of the stands, and in the darkness the bartender gave them three cups of kerosene oil. They drank half of it before discovering the mistake, and then thought they were poisoned. A doctor gave them an emetic and they recovered.

George Fullmer of Sanbury, Pa., on Sunday after church took a book, and seating himself in a swing in his yard, read and idly swung. The swing, made of an upright post and a heavy bar resting on a tree, was a new one, and the upright gave way and the cresset came down, and striking Fullmer on the head, killed him very badly.

Little John Alexander and a companion of Newport, Vt., thought to have lots of fun by searing a clerk who slept in a store. So they awoke him by striking him on the head, and the clerk thought burglars were trying to get in, and drew his revolver, and a ball went through the door and entered Johnny's head, killing him very badly.

It is difficult to get a drink in Minneapolis on Sunday, but a shrewd fellow got one the other evening. He went into a drug store where he was known, and told the clerk what he went into raptures over the rare specimen he had found, and bought ten cents' worth of alcohol to preserve it in. Then he went out and had his drink.

A daughter of James Young of Nashua, N. H., was unable to walk for several years. The best of all medical remedies had failed to cure her a faith healer, Dr. Baker, visited her and succeeded in relieving her so that she could walk without crutches. Having done this the doctor offered to marry her, and the two recently wedded.

The big timber raft now being built in Halifax, and destined for New York city, is nearly done. It will be 410 feet long, 50 feet wide, 35 feet deep, and will contain 2,240,000 superfeet of lumber. It will be held together by an elaborate system of chains. It is thought that if this monster succeeds in getting to New York safely from Halifax it will revolutionize the lumber carrying trade.

Louis Wilson of Cameron, Mo., 8 years old, was knocked down and run over in the street, and a heavy wheel passed over his chest, breaking his ribs and crushing the ribs and the breast bone. He never uttered a cry; but when his playmates threatened around him he cried out in a hoarse voice: "Go away! Why, you all run as if I was a side show." Louis will get well, the doctors say.

A negro who borrowed money enough of a Raleigh merchant to get a marriage license explained his action by saying that he had a pretty good sized cotton crop, and had heard that the farmer who had demanded more money, and having found a healthy widow with three able bodied children would marry her next Sunday and he would be a child at work on the farm on Monday.

Thomas J. Perkins, of Tallahassee, is a man of regular habits. He has lived in this one house 40 years; been in one business 34 years; completed one cigar, desk and chair in 10 years; worn one watch 36 years; been superintendent of one Sunday School 40 years; subscribed for one paper 14 years; been a member, and trustee, of one church 40 years; lived in one house 45 and with one wife 40 years.

Charles Hatch, of St. Joseph, Ill., penned some hope belonging to the late Charles, were were trespassing. Then he told Glascock about it, and demanded $2 damages before he would deliver the horse. Glascock ejected. A quarrel followed, and Glascock got out in the road and fight it out. Both started for the road, but before they got there Charles Hatch and Charles Hatch were well-to-do farmers.

There is one honest boy in Wichita, Kansas, and he is a bootblack. The other day he blacked the feet of a gentleman at a hotel, who gave him, as supposed, five copper cents. An hour later the boy returned, hunted up the gentleman, and handed him a $5 gold piece, which he had given as a cent. The gentleman was equal to the occasion, for he at once took the boy to a clothing store and bought him a $15 suit.

The three-year-old daughter of Mrs. Kirtley, of Frankfort, Mo., fell into a well containing nine feet of water, which was about ten feet from the surface. With much horsemanship Mrs. Kirtley jumped into the well, seized the child, fixed the little one's feet firmly in the walls, and then waited for assistance. It came after long waiting, and mother and child were rescued.

An Indian funeral procession in western Oregon is thus described: "The defunct had been set upon a horse, and a stick had been lashed along one side of his body to keep it in an upright position. The head was not supported in any way, and as the horse trotted along the body seemed bowing in every direction. The head shone in a horribly grotesque manner. The widow, dressed in her mourning plaid, trotted along behind on a lacy mule, which she kept vigorously applying the whip."

A Nova Scotia bear, not succeeding in getting through two pine planks that formed five feet of the base of a sheepfold, reached above them, where his claws were used, and chewed and clawed there until he made a hole big enough to scramble through. The farmer heard of this, and the bear, jumped from his bed, and rushed to their aid, clad in one garment and armed with three blood-filled fists. The bear's growl was too much for the bear, who went out the way he came in and escaped.

A private letter published in a Kansas paper tells of a party of five or six geologists who were camped in southwestern Kansas one night when a meteor fell near them. In the morning they were found buried in the ground, and still quiet.

warm. They managed to break off a chunk of about a pound and a half weight, carried it to Denver, and had it assayed. It panned out about 30 per cent of gold, 10 per cent of iron, and 11 per cent nickel, with copper and other metals. The party are going back with dynamite to test the rest of the meteor, which they calculate weighs five tons. If the assay holds out they'll get a ton of gold.

A Prairie Settlement.

One autumn day in the year 1830 a small emigrant train came to a halt on the bank of a stream in Manitoba. The train consisted of a large oxen covered "prairie schooner," drawn by four teams of heavy farm wagons heavily loaded, and drawn by mules, and a small herd of cattle. A man of about forty, evidently the father of this traveling family, drew up his horse on a little grassy knoll near the stream, and got down from the high seat of the "prairie schooner"; the young fellows who were driving the mule teams followed the example of their father, while the hired man, who was the cattle grazer, saw the bank lower down, approached the group of wagons. The father was saying "Well, from the agent's description; this is to be our prairie home."

They looked about with considerable satisfaction. On the western bank of the small river was a large strip of timberland, and toward the east and south lay the undulating prairie, the many farms looking like a range of hills stretching away until they joined the prairie level in the eastern horizon. A boy of about fifteen, with his two long legs, Jack, aged twenty, and Will, eighteen, and his daughter Cora, sixteen years old, had laid the family's eastern farm to try their fortune in the west. The father, Mr. Atley, a faithful farm hand, had followed his master's command to go west.

Little time was lost in admiring the new land, however, for it was growing late, and much must be done before dark. The river was successfully crossed, and the party at last stood on their new farm. Long experience on the trail had taught father and son the value of the "prairie schooner," and the father, Mr. Atley, a faithful farm hand, had followed his master's command to go west.

DAILY AND STOCK TOPICS.

The best butter is made on the old-fashioned way. Rye bread is a common feed for horses in Belgium and Germany. Sprinkle salt upon the back of a lamb to live to the bone.

The butter supply can be increased by frequent stirring of the cream. The cows should be milked, "as regular as clock work," at the same hour, and in precisely the same order, each day. Keep young pigs dry and warm. Clean pens and dry beds are necessary; keep pens warm, and the pigs will grow fat.

A flagstone floor is the best for the dairy; wood, cement or brick absorbs drippings, and the floor becomes foul and odorous. A milkman's wife says to start an obstinate cow is to take him out of the shafts and lead him around until he is giddy.

The last month of an animal's life has great influence upon its flesh, because the feeding during that period largely determines the flavor and quality.

Stock needs salt, and it is a cause of colic in horses and even in cattle are caused by a deficiency of a supply of salt.

The small meat of milk furnished by one cow may be for another cow. And it is the butter yield that is the best test of a cow's value.

Horses will go eight and probably ten hours without feed if properly fed at evening and morning. They should have water more frequently, but never when hot.

The root crops for swine should consist of variety. The farmer should grow not only beets and turnips for them, but parsnips and carrots also. The cheapest pork is raised on a mixture of these roots.

A mixture of skimmed milk, buckwheat bran, and cornmeal with good corn fodder should be a very good feed for ordinary variety. The farmer should grow not only beets and turnips for them, but parsnips and carrots also. The cheapest pork is raised on a mixture of these roots.

HOUSEHOLD.

SOMETHING FOR DESKTOP.

As the weather becomes warmer, puddings, custards, and other delicacies of rich pastry, and the making of these light, fluffed dishes is a pleasure to most cooks. A few such "sundries" are below which have become favorites, with all who have tried them. Never add oil or take from a recipe given by a good cook, but use just criticism upon the same.

PLANTING ISLAND.—Make a cake with one cup of sugar, one cup sweet milk, a well beaten egg, a pinch of butter size of an egg, little salt, and a little soda. Bake in a tin and one teaspoonful of soda in two cups of flour. Beat all well together and the batter that is left thick pour all to a common long tin. Bake quickly. Make a soft boiled custard by heating four cups of milk in a tall set in a kettle of hot water or in a double boiler; when scalding hot, pour a capital on to three eggs beaten with a capital and a half of sugar and three teaspoonfuls of corn starch; then pour all together, and cook till it begins to thicken, pour through a strainer, and flavor with lemon juice, and a little nutmeg. Put in a quart on a plate, and set over powder sugar, and put a slice of jelly on each piece.

MINUTE PUDDING.—One pint of milk, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one pint of flour. Boil the milk after adding the salt; pour the flour in, and stir with a table spoon all the time. When the pudding is done, this should not be made until the hot sauce as it should be eaten as soon as made.

SALAD.—One ounce cup of sugar, one ounce half cup of butter, one egg, one lemon and a small nutmeg and three tablespoonfuls of boiling water. Lay the sugar, one and a half cups, and add the egg well beaten, all the juice and half the grated rind of the lemon and the nutmeg; beat ten minutes with a table spoon. Add the butter, one spoonful at a time. Keep the sauce hot until steam or in the top of the teakettle, but do not allow it to boil.

LEMON JELLY.—A little less than one quart of boiling water, one-half, hot of gelatin, one cup of sugar, two lemons. Pour the boiling water over the gelatin and when it is dissolved add sugar, lemon juice and rind of one lemon. Strain it into molds that have been dipped in cold water and set away where it is cool or in the refrigerator. When very cold it will be stiff. One half of this recipe fills a small mould which is often sufficient for a dessert. Measure a pint of water and then take out one tablespoonful; this will make the proportion about right for one-half the other ingredients.

SPANISH CREAM.—Take one half box gelatin, one quart milk, beaten yolks of three eggs, one ounce sugar, two teaspoonfuls of flavoring, and a pinch of soda. Soak the gelatin in the milk for two hours. Add the yolks, and beat, stirring often. When scalding hot, pour in the beaten eggs and sugar and return to the farina kettle. Boil one minute, stirring constantly. Strain through a fine sieve, add lemon juice and vanilla to a mould. Set on ice or in a cool place.

SCIENTIFIC AND USEFUL.

THE HORNED RATSLAKE OF ARIZONA.

The horned ratslake of Arizona can move forward, backward or sideways with equal facility.

Remains of what stands are found in the ruins of the houses of the lake women. The Chinese have records of its culture as early as 7,000 B. C., compared with wheat, rice and modern plants.

M. Palissot de Beauvois positively asserts that he twice saw young ratslakes take refuge in the water, and that he was informed by outside danger, thus proving the old popular belief.

The American architect says: "The Southern pine seems to be the natural habitat in this country of the building, which is found in immense numbers under the bark of old trees of that species."

An artesian well is in course of boring at Patch, which is 55 miles deep, and the temperature of the water is 101° F. The boring will be continued till a temperature of 175° is reached. The increasing heat leads to the deduction that the heat of the earth may be utilized ultimately in the stead of costly fuel and furnaces.

Rice can be grown by the dome house. Lime, powdered, made of mountain limestone. Cartridges two and a half inches in diameter, with a groove along the side are packed in a layer of rice, lying and a cylinder of rice, where they are treated in such a manner as to act as generators of steam with a protection from smoke or insects.

An anti-insect fabric was patented by Mr. John P. Ryan, of New York city. It is made by first steeping the fabric in a solution of caustic soda, then drying and dipping in benzine, then drying and dipping in tobacco, camellia bark and hot water, the fabric to be used in trunk linings, etc., as a protection from moths or insects.

A saw without teeth, made of Bessemer steel, run by a ninety-horse power engine, and which is thirty-eight inches in diameter and three eighths of an inch thick at the edge, is in operation at the electrical shops at Greenbush, N. Y. It is used for cutting railway rails. The chips out from the rail by the action of the saw with such force that it can form a solid piece of steel nearly as firm as the rail itself.

Interesting experiments are now in progress at the German Pavilion, in Fairmount Park, in connection with the exhibition of American seed; that is, from the eggs of worms bred in that country. Hereafter more care has been given to the reproduction of good cocoons than the preservation of the seed, but one of the experienced members of the Woman's Silk Culture Association, in the country of the silk worm, believe that a better quality of silk can be produced from American seed than from the imported.

Mr. Blake, following the example of Mr. Meredith, appears to be favorable to manhood suffrage. This principle should long ago have been adopted by Canada. It is safe to say that had we followed the example of the United States in that respect the Dominion would have double its present population. No candidate, no matter what his political stripe, need count on THE TRAVELER office for a vote unless prepared to grant manhood suffrage and the abolition of all property qualifications for municipal and legislative offices.

MY MOTHER.

The sweetest face in all the world to me,
Set in a frame of shining silver hair,
With eyes whose language was fidelity,
This was my mother, was she not most fair.

Eight little hands have found their sweetest slaves

Upon the pillow of her gentle breast:

The world is wide, yet nowhere does it keep,

So safe a haven, so complete a rest.

Her hands were neither beautiful nor fair,

Yet seemed they lovely in her children's eyes

We found our daily strength and comfort there.

And if her hands were rough we were not wise.

The counted something great to be a queen,

To lend a kingdom to a woman's will.

A mother such as mine I ween,

Is something greater and more noble still.

Oh mother, in the changeless years now flown

Since as a child I went upon your knee,

Life has not brought, nor fortune shown,

Such tender love, such yearning sympathy

Let fortune smile or frown which e'er she will,

It mattered not, I scorned her fickle ways;

I never could feel quite bereft until

I lost my mother's honest blame and praise.

ROMAN CATHOLIC PIC-NIC.

The Roman Catholic Pic-nic at Black's

Grove on Dominion Day attracted a vast crowd from Deseronto and the surrounding country. Every provision had been made for the comfort of visitors, and mirth and happiness everywhere reigned supreme. The devotees of the goddess of dancing were tripped to the music of two splendid string bands. The ladies of the congregation had a splendid array of edibles for their hungry and discriminating patrons who retired well satisfied. Good order was maintained without an effort. Rev. Father McDonough and the Committee worked energetically and to good purpose in making every visitor

MARYSVILLE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Miss Annie McHenry is spending her vacation with friends in Trenton.

Mr. A. G. Allison, of Kingston, paid the village a short visit on Saturday last.

I am sorry to learn that Miss Nellie Welch is rather seriously ill.

Mr. & Mrs. Chas. Scanlon arrived home on Saturday last from an extended pleasure trip through the province of Quebec. They report having had a splendid time.

Our base-ball club has become a thing of the past. It was nearly as short-lived as the mushroom. Want of physical endurance during the warm weather was the trouble.

It is reported that Peter who looks after Her Majesty's mail keeps a sharp lookout for pretty girls as passengers and feels quite bad when he hears that the old man has taken back a pretty passenger on his day off.

SHANNONVILLE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Your correspondent is still alive, but owing to the extreme heat has been unable to learn much of the news of the past two weeks.

Several of our young people attended the Annual Convocation at Albert College, Belleville, on Tuesday evening last.

Miss Osa Edwards, formerly of this place, graduated with first honors in piano-forte course third year; my friends of this village congratulate her on her success.

Mr. J. Simmons expects to have a fine crop of raspberries; we learn that several of our young ladies intend paying Fred that long promised visit when berries ripen.

Select ice cream parties predominate at Present.

The Methodist Sabbath School of this place intend holding a lawn festival on the 25th of this month.

The masons began their part of the work on Mr. L. E. Mill's new residence Monday morning last.

We sympathize deeply with Mr. J. Doreen and family in the loss of their young friend Mr. Alex. McCabe, who died very suddenly on the 25th of June at Trenton.

LONSDALE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The farmers about here are making great complaints about the dry weather and a prospect of short crops, but are 'making hay while the sun shines' and I suppose if we should get a good rain they would not be satisfied. Many are getting their hay housed in excellent condition but say the old meadows are light and new ones good.

Mr. Robert Winters has been severely afflicted with sore eyes for several weeks, and thinks they are slowly improving under the skillful treatment of Dr. Reider.

Mr. Bruin has returned home from a few days visiting friends in the country.

Mr. Foster, millwright, is making a general overhauling in the grist mill here and is putting in the new process for grinding.

We have just received the solemn news of the death of Miss Elizabeth Hickerson, daughter of Wm. Hickerson, of the second con. of Tyndalton, Deseronto, was complaining only a few days though not considered dangerous as her physician pronounced her doing well until Tuesday evening, 6th inst., when Dr. Reider was called, but too late to be of any help as she expired a few minutes after his arrival. Elizabeth's mother died when she was a small girl and she was left to manage the household affairs for a lonely father and family, which by hard labour and a willing heart she did in the best of order for about twelve years until called away to her reward. For a number of years she had been a very consistent member of the Methodist Church and we are told that she when first taken sick she would not recover and expressed her willingness to depart and join those who have passed on before in singing the praises of her Saviour. Her aged and sorrowful father and family have the sympathy of their many friends and acquaintances in their very severe bereavement.

READ.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The Rev. Father McCarthy and a large number from this neighborhood attended the Catholic Picnic at Black's Grove on Dominion Day.

A meeting in favor of Home Rule was held in Hanley's Hall on Tuesday evening.

An inquirer asks me is Don Carlos? Is he a fool or a lunatic? In answer we beg to state, that if inquirer or any of his friends of the feathered tribe take him for either one or the other, they will, perchance, be grievously mistaken. Don Carlos is mentally sound and has cut his wisdom teeth. He is also a splendid marksman, and will go right through a whip-poor-wee nest at 1,000 yards. He is a man of honor and integrity, and a prophet with honor even in his own country.

Our athletic young men have organized a football club. They have developed a good deal of skill and activity, and are ready at any time to receive a challenge from any neighboring club.

R. R. Palmer, Esq., Insurance Agent of Belleville, was visiting at Mr. J. Meagher's on Friday last. During the evening he was prostrated by a very sharp attack of inflammation of the bowels and has been lying sick since. Dr. Foran, of Melrose, has been in attendance. We are glad to learn that Mr. Palmer is better and hopes to be soon around again.

Our excellent teacher Miss McHenry held the usual half yearly examination of her school on Friday last. A large number of visitors were present including the Trustees, Mr. J. C. Conley, Mr. John Brennan and Mr. Michael Buckley, Jr. There was a searching examination of the several classes from which it appeared that the school had made a very marked improvement under the present teacher, showing the care and attention which Miss McHenry had bestowed upon her pupils. The exercises varied by singing by several of the pupils. All did well but Miss Rose Anne McGuinness and Miss Tessie Shannon were particularly noticed. The latter 'leader of the choir,' as she was called by one of the visitors 'Old folks at home,' being joined in the chorus by several of the pupils with telling effect. Short addresses were given by the trustees and others, in which the teacher was deservedly complimented on the industry and interest displayed by her in school, as evidenced by the steady progress of the pupils.

Arbor day was spent in a general renovating and clearing up of the schoolhouse and grounds. Flower beds were made and flowers planted and the general appearance of the schoolhouse and grounds shows that the day was well spent.

Mrs. York, of Richmond, who died last week was buried in St. Charles' Cemetery last Sunday.

Rain is again badly needed. We have had very fine, but intensely hot weather during the last two weeks. The farmers are now all busy with their hay. It has been magnificent weather for curing clover. Many of the old meadows are not worth cutting, and the farmers have in many cases turned in their cattle on them. Where there is any worth cutting the crop is very light.

Miss McHenry has left to spend her vacation with friends in Trenton, Napanee and Kingston.

Mrs. Fairman is gaining laurels for herself in the teaching and training of the choir. Under her directions the choir are making steady progress, and receive the highest praise from visitors from all quarters.

Mr. Thomas Murphy has returned home from a very busy trip for the vacation, having successfully passed his examinations.

The many friends of Mr. Chas. Meade will be glad to learn that he is well, and has returned from Ottawa College to Morrisburg for the vacation.

THE MAN WHO ADVERTISES.

He's just a bit egotistic but not a whiffrantic, and he does it up emphatic when he sends a business 'ad'.

And he cuts a knowing paper, saying 'Put it in the paper, at top of highest column, if you want to make me glad. Start it with your biggest letter, set it up a little better, than the other fellow's ad across the way.'

I want it fixed up nice at the cheapest kind of price—I'm going to see if advertising doesn't pay.

Now every Spring and Winter he rushes to the printer, and in the time of Summer and the Fall.

And his copy is so plain you can read and come again: Oh! the man who advertises knows it all.

Then the paper man sits down and scratches on his crown, and he hits his scalp a few kind of thud.

He's thinking while he's winking: 'Were columns made all top my business I could drop, be fat and sleek and rich as mud.'

Use Ayer's

Hair Vigor. It stimulates and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It removes dandruff and prevents humors. By its use, falling hair is checked, and brashy or weak hair is restored to the vigor and freshness of youth. PUT BUTTER IN PAILS.

Not long since I was talking with a noted dealer in butter, and he remarked that he wished a law could be enacted against the practice of lalling up butter and putting it on the market in chunks, rolls and balls.

The butter package is now so cheap that no one can afford the time to ball up butter and get it into a shape that the market does not want. It will do for the dairyman who has private customers to whom the butter is sold each week, or often, to make it into

"pails" for the general market, butter should be put, as soon as possible, beyond the influence of the air, and this is to place it in small pails. Air is all right for a few hours in ripening cream, but when he comes upon the clear butter fats, is to burn out their carbon, as surely as it burns out the carbon in wood, whether by the quick process of fire or the slow one of decay.

BREAKING A COLT TO THE HALTER.

If the colt endeavors to pull away from the halter is on, you have to circumvent him by a little strategy. Take a common clothes line-rope and make a large slip-loop knotted around the body, draw it moderately tight, and pass the end up between the front legs through the hind legs, and then, when this is very apparent. He cannot understand how anything can pull the hind part of his body and his head at the same time, and on feeling the strain behind him will go forward, and thus you will accomplish your object without being compelled to pull him by the head. The rope in the right hand and stand directly in front of the colt, say, in a decided manner, "Come here!" and at the same time pull the rope sharply.

The colt will invariably come forward, and when he does so, caress him. Repeat this two or three times, until he will quickly move forward; then say, "Come here!"

Next, with the rope hitch him to the manger or to a post, and, standing in front of him, open and shut umbrellas, shake buffe-tes and beat tin pans—in fact, make as much noise as possible without touching him.

Of course he cannot think of two things at once, and the rope tied around catches him by surprise, and he will end by giving up trying to get away when he finds he is freer from pain than when he is quiet and still than when he is jerking his head. For a very personable horse put the rope as far forward as possible around the body. This treatment may be applied until he is almost wholly broken. The same arrangement is the most successful one in existence for halter pullers, and is also almost always successful in leading a horse behind a wagon. How many people are at their wits end continually when on a long ride with a horse tied to the carriage behind and yet the simple invention would prevent it all, and they would not be obliged to even give the horse a thought.—American Agriculturist for July.

NEW BIRTHDAY CARDS AT EGAR'S.

NO NEED OF DROWNING.

Below is something which you should learn by heart about keeping from drowning.

It may save many lives.

The human body weighs a pound in the water, and a chair will carry two persons, it is, will keep the head above water, which is all that is necessary when it is a question of life or death. One finger placed upon a stool or chair, or a small box, or a piece of board, will easily keep the head above water, while the two feet and the other hand may be used as paddles to propel the body forward. It is not necessary to know how to swim to be able to keep from drowning. A little experience of the buoyant power of water, and faith in it, is all that is required. Children and all other should have practice in the sustaining power of water. In nine cases out of ten the knowledge that what will sustain a pound weight is all that is necessary to keep one's head above the water will serve better in emergencies than the greatest expertness as a swimmer. A person unfamiliar with the buoyant power will naturally try to climb a top of the floating object on which he tries to save himself. It is big enough that it is all right. But it is generally not large enough to keep all entirely above water.

This often happens when pleasure boats capsize. All immediately want to get out of the water on top of the overturned or half filled boat, and all are drowned except those who wished to stay in the water wholly up. If they simply trust the water to sus-tain 99.100 of the weight of their bodies, and the disabled boat of the one hundred all might be saved under most circumstances.

An overturned, or half-filled wooden boat will sustain more people than it will carry.

It would keep the heads above water of as many people as could get their hands on the gunwale.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed

at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children's Teeth. It is the best and infallible. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers;

there is no other remedy so safe and so entirely and Diarrhea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. At Mrs.

Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the perfectly reliable of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists.

Prepared and sold by J. C. Winslow, 235

FRIDAY, JULY 16, 1886.

THE "GLORIOUS TWELFTH."

The "Glorious Twelfth" dawned bright and fair and continued until evening's close. The event of the day, as far as Deseronto was concerned, was the excursion by the Quinte to Belleville, under the auspices of Prince Albert Lodge, No. 1,375. The members of the order having assembled at the hall, marched in procession to the dock, the Rathbun Company Band playing inspiring and appropriate airs. Never has it been our good fortune to accompany a more happy, good-natured, or more ardent excursion party than that which thronged the spacious decks of the Quinte that morning. Arrived at Belleville the Lodge marched to the agricultural grounds where they were photographed, as they entered. Belleville was crowded with visitors, of whom it is said there were 7,000 present, the greatest number ever brought into the city for any demonstration. Every one was on pleasure bent and good feeling and harmony everywhere prevailed. The procession was a splendid affair, and 2,000 Orangemen taking part, with many brass bands and as many rifle and drum bands. There were 75 ladders and 61 stand of colors. Thousands of spectators lined the streets and the greatest enthusiasm was manifested. Returning to the agricultural grounds the multitude assembled near the band stand, where addresses were delivered by members of the order and patriotic resolutions were passed, including, among others, one strongly worded condemning the concession of Home Rule to Ireland by Mr. Gladstone. A marked feature of the day's proceedings was the excellent order and good conduct which was everywhere visible. The Deseronto Orangemen and their friends returned by the Quinte, the home trip being as pleasant as that of the morning. Thus ended a pleasant and memorable day.

THE EARTHQUAKES IN NEW ZEALAND.

SPECIALLY AWFUL VISITATIONS—GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION OF THE SCENES.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—The steamer "Alamada," from Australia brings particulars of the fearful volcanic eruptions in New Zealand of last month. The first reports of volcanic disturbances came from Taupo, in the Auckland lake district. The natives of that village were awakened from sleep at two a. m. by repeated vivid flashes of lightning, which continued at rapid intervals up to four a. m., when a tremendous earthquake occurred followed quickly by others. The shocks were so violent that people jumped from their beds, and ran wild with terror, fled for their lives in their night clothes, taking nothing with them but their children. The earthquakes followed each other in quick succession up to seven o'clock in the morning, when leaden-colored clouds were observed advancing from the south, spreading out until they covered the sky. While still moving they burst with a sound of thunder and showers of fire dust began to fall. Accounts from other points state that Mount Tarawera was the first volcano to break forth, and hardly were the flames seen issuing from its crater than the entire Pacific range of mountains belched forth in sympathy, hurling fire, burning lava and stone over the surrounding country. For the first time the extinct volcano of Ruapeha was awakened into action. The entire country over an area of one hundred and twenty miles long by twenty in breadth, was not only but a mass of flame and hot crumbling soil, which in places rose to a height of 400 feet capped at the highest point by the Tefela Geyser, said to have been one of the grandest in the world. During all this time showers of dust continued to fall until they became so dense as to make day dark as night and not until the second day did the dust cease falling. The dust emitted was a strong sulphurous smell. Numerous small villages were totally destroyed. Walroa was covered to the depth of 10 feet with dust and ashes. Ruapeha was completely engulfed as well as some other small villages. One hundred and twenty persons are known to have lost their lives, among whom were several prominent residents. The loss of cattle started to death from the destruction of pasture lands is thought to be very great. Great distress exists throughout the Auckland Lake District.

COMMUNICATIONS.

NEW DIRECT ROAD FROM DESERONTO TO LONSDALE.

To the Editor of the Tribune.

Sir,—Our respected Reeve, Mr. Hanley, on Thursday last completed the purchase of a piece of land from Mr. James Darcy, by which the only obstruction to travellers from the gravel road to the back of the township will be removed. It now remains for the Indian Council to open the piece of road lying between the Slash Road and the railroad, and Deseronto will then have a direct road to Lonsdale.

Our Council say they are willing to aid the work, and as it will prove a great convenience to the travelling public, and undoubtedly be the means of bringing an increase of trade to the store-keepers of Deseronto it will be to our material advantage to induce the Indian Council to give the matter their favorable consideration, and to this end it would, I think, be advisable for a deputation composed of ratepayers of Deseronto and Tyendinaga to wait on the Indian Council at its next meeting and represent the matter to them in as favorable a manner as possible.

As I have already troubled you on several former occasions with this matter, I must apologize for again taking up your space; but as the question of good roads is an important one to every member of the community, and as we are exceptionally unfortunate in our roads in this locality, I trust you will once more plead our cause, and I sincerely hope that I shall not have to trouble you again. I could say a good deal about the boundary track (for a road it is not) but refrain, as it appears to be useless.

Yours, &c.,
FRO DONO PUBLICO

READ.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Thomas Hanley, second son of Mr. J. C. Hanley, met with a very severe accident last week. He was about to mount a horse and the animal suddenly started dragging him along by the bridle.

He received two or three severe injuries on the leg and a general shaking up. Dr. Reiner was at once sent for under whose care the patient is doing well.

The meeting in favor of Home Rule for Ireland, held in Hanley Hall last week was well attended. The chair was occupied by the Rev. Mr. Macrae, who was declared by the Chairman, Rev. Father McCarthy and N. Vermilyea, Esq., Deputy Reeve of Thurlow. A collection towards the Irish election expenses was taken up, amounting to $60.

P. R. Palmer, Esq., who was taken suddenly ill at Mr. James Meagher's, is better, and has returned to Belleville.

Miss Annie Whims has returned home from Belleville where she has been attending the High School during the past half year.

Wm. Meagher, son of Mr. Jas. Meagher, who has been suffering from a sore leg for a long time, has had a surgical operation performed by Dr. Murphy, of Belleville, assisted by Dr. Forin.

Mr. John Whims as usual has a number of contracts on hand. At present he is engaged remodeling Mr. John Doyle's barn on the 4th con. An addition has been put to both the east and west sides and a lintel has been put the whole length on the south side. The building will be now 102 feet wide.

From Northern Siftings we learn that a sportsman was lately firing at two pigeons on the top of a barn. A well known artist was engaged in the cupola of a high building when the bullets whizzed over his head, making it appear as if they were unpleasantly near. Had they struck the cupola no doubt the pigeon would have sounded the alarm and the sportsman would have turned out in search of the offender.

The weather of the last week which was made in the school grounds on Arbor Day, and the beautiful flowers planted therein, we have no doubt, that later in the season, when they are in bloom and their fragrance filling the air, orders for bouquets will be filled with neatness and despatch, and it will not detract from their beauty, if among the flowers there is one that is "Only a pansy blossom."

The weather has continued very warm and dry. Last week almost every day the thermometer was dancing among the nineties in the shade. The farmers are all busy with their hay and some are cutting their rye and fall wheat.

We are glad to learn that Miss Julia Hanley has been presented with a handsome gift, in recognition of her services in collecting the second largest sum of money by the ladies of this place for a recent picnic.

Miss Hanley is a general favorite and is always to the front in every good work in connection with church matters.

CROP REPORTS.

BAY OF QUINTE DISTRICT.

BARLEY.—There is a less area of barley sown than last year. During the early part of June barley promised well, but the drought which set in about the middle of June, and which has continued since, has injured the crop very materially; it will probably be about a two-third crop, say 18 to 20 bush, per acre.

Winter wheat appears to be a pretty good crop; it was pretty well filled before the drought came; the acreage sown in this section is small.

Oats.—Not a large acreage sown; that put in early may be a fair crop provided rain comes shortly; late sowing was injured by the drought and will not be more than one-third a crop.

PEAS.—A very small acreage sown. Early peas will be a fair crop, but late sowing will be very light.

HAY.—Timothy will be about half a crop in this section; the drought has prevented its stalling properly so that the crop is very thin, especially on high rolling-land. Clover and timothy mixed is a good crop, and will probably average 15 to 20 tons per acre on good ground.

POTATOES.—Which promised well in the beginning of this month have also been much hurt by the continued drought, and unless sufficient rain comes very soon the greater part of the crop, that is the late planting, will be a complete failure.

Other Roots.—Such as mangold, turnips, carrots, &c., are not much sown in this section, those that will also be a total failure unless sufficient rain comes very soon.

We would remark here that a considerable loss is caused to barley and other grains this season by what is known as scalding.

The heavy rains which fell just as the grain was coming up nicely, and which lay on the ground in many places did much harm; grain grown on lands properly drained did not suffer much from this cause. Nothing but good drainage can prevent grain from scalding.

We would offer a piece of good advice to the farmers of this district, and that is to be careful not to overestimate their barley crop. Last year most farmers had fully predicted that they expected, and we hear the same will be true of this year. We trust a word to the wise will be sufficient.

A BALLOON VOYAGE.

Thirteen Hours of Anxiety and Peril.

"Tell me something about the most perilous voyage you ever made!" was demanded of Prof. King, the aeronaut.

"Well, let me see. The most perilous voyage, I think, was over the Atlantic Ocean, Canada wilderness, from New Hampshire east to Plymouth, N.S. Lawrence. We ascended from Plymouth, N.S. Lawrence. A slight rain was falling. Our course was north-west, and soon we found ourselves over one of the White Mountains, and we had to throw out ballast to keep from striking it. After passing over the White Mountains, we plunged into the wilderness, or at least passed over it. At nightfall, as we were crossing Lake Umbagog, we saw a light on the shore, and we hoisted. We seemed to attract attention, but no response was made. A canoe was put down in the water, and we could see it looking out at us in the water. It was looking for something. They thought the cry probably came from somebody on the shore. We soon left the light behind, and the nearer they got to the water, the more we dropped behind it in shelter and rested for about half an hour. While we were discussing the Boston Journal, with me, we had been on some twenty-five voyages before, but what course it would be best to pursue, being in the wilderness and a forest, provided with provisions, we finally decided to take the balloon as fast as we could over the Canadian wilderness, some inhabited region, and cross the Atlantic in the open air, and feet rapidly, and not calculated, except under such a stress of circumstances, to make main aloft as we would require to cross the wilderness. We had still, however, a bag and a half of ballast left, which we were economically using. Just here there was a natural law to be observed, which was of itself sufficient to carry us through without the use of ballast. It appears that at night when a balloon reaches the ordinary cloud height it is in the clouds, and neither rises nor falls without any expenditure of gas or ballast, and so will float for hours. Well, we floated on in the clouds, which were occasionally over our heads, and once or twice during the night we saw the moon through the rifts, and frequently they would break from beneath us, so that we were looking into an inky abyss below. The only sound that came to our ears were occasional drops of water. From our isolated position we could constantly hear the latter.

"At a hour after dark dragged tediously away we sat in the car. We would see each other and kept up a conversation, but we could not tell what time it was except by passing our fingers over the hands of our watches. You know, of course, have been dangerous to strike a match. Pretty soon a new feature among the sounds of the water struck our ears. We wondered what caused the peculiar noise, and we concluded it was the breakers. After passing over them all sounds ceased, and we then knew we were in the open air. As it did not seem to be policy to pursue the course we were in, we brought the balloon down slightly and where we had heard the surf, and deposited our drag-rope over the water. This rope is an appendage to the balloon about 350 feet in length, and a basket when it rests upon the water. We kept constant watch, and in the course of an hour we saw in front of us a black line, which was apparently a part of the ship, but it proved an illusion, and as we watched the object it gradually widened, and soon after our drag-rope was caught among the trees. A forest found that we had run ashore over a forest, presuming it at the time to be an island, but as it turned out to be a forest, we were in a counter current of air on the water, which carried it back to the mainland. We again rested behind a hill, where we lay till the break of day, when we threw out the ballast of our ballast and rose again.

After a while we discovered a road, and plunged in, making within a mile and a half of it. We made for the nearest place—Sydney, which is about 250 miles below Quebec—and learned that the water we had come out on was the Gulf of St. Lawrence. If we had continued across it we would have reached the coast of Labrador, 150 miles further on. As it was we traveled 550 miles in thirteen hours.

MARSHALL'S BLOODHOUND.

His Trial Trip After King Ravel was a gratifying success.

The constable at Houston, Tex., James Perkins, has a bloodhound as an assistant which is famous for its understanding.

It is said that he did not maintain his reputation as the best man hunter in Texas he would take back to test the horse's capacity the constable and several friends went out to the fair grounds taking the Marshall dog and several other dogs. The dog had been tried on many occasions and found wanting, but it was thought best to give them a chance along with the horse's capacity the constable and several friends went out to the fair grounds taking the Marshall dog and several other dogs. The dog had been tried on many occasions and found wanting, but it was thought best to give them a chance along with the horse's capacity the constable and several friends went out to the fair grounds taking the Marshall dog and several other dogs.

As soon as the party arrived at the grounds King Ravel started off on foot towards Bay's Bayou. In this way he made about two miles, travelling in roundabout ways, sometimes crossing his own path, and all the time improving every opportunity that presented itself to cover his tracks. A pony had been hitched near the bayou, and when he came to the animal he mounted it, rode rapidly toward the timber, taking a circuitous path, and so on. The dog's head was turned out and got the scent the Marshall dog was off like a rifle ball, the others following, but apparently with no very keen intelligence. It was they lacked in knowledge, however, they made rip for their baying, which was something frightful. The Marshall dog kept in the lead, and whenever Ravel had crossed his tracks or zigzagged the brute followed his trail with a precision and speed that were wonderful. At the point where the fugitive had mounted the horse the new dog paused for a moment and stood like a statue while the others circled around him as if unable to decide what to do next. Then the Marshall dog, with nose on the ground and trembling legs, made a dash for the place and turning in his tracks went round the ring once more with a sort of regulation he went off, baying even louder than the hours that followed him. This the pursuers could not keep up with the pack. Some time later Ravel, who was riding like mad, heard the dogs coming nearer and nearer, and, recognizing the danger from them, he hurriedly dismounted, ran a few yards, and climbed a tree. He was not a minute too soon, for the dogs, the hound from Marshall in the lead, were on his heels, and, having located him, they began jumping in the air and manifesting an overpowering desire to get hold of him. The pony in the meantime, almost had fit, and its owner says it has not ceased trembling yet. When the pursuing party came up they found Ravel still in the tree, and the dogs keeping up their infernal racket below. The constable told the fugitive to come down, and stood ready to defend him from the dogs, should occasion arise. As to the old hounds, this precaution was not necessary, but the Marshall dog, in spite of its inferiority, would have injured him if his trainers had not driven him off.

The test was deemed highly satisfactory by all who witnessed it, and the constable will keep the dog.

Frightful Waste. Consumption carries off its thousands of victims every year. Yes, thousands of human lives are being wasted that might be saved, for the fact is now established that consumption, in its early stages, is curable. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" will, if used in time, effect a permanent cure. It has no equal as a remedy for bronchitis, coughs and colds. Its efficacy has been proved in thousands of cases. All druggists.

Why is it that American defaulting cashiers all come to Canada? Because it's a good place to run to (Toronto). "Be wise to day," this man says to defer. "Don't neglect your cough. If you do your fate may be that of the countless thousands who have done likewise and who to day fill consumptive graves. Night sweats, spitting of blood, weak lungs, and consumption itself if taken in time can be cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery." This wonderful preparation has no equal as a remedy for lung and throat diseases. All druggists.

Now that the open trout season is well on, the buying of the fish in thermos is increasing to an alarming extent.

The huge, dratted, gring, skinking fish are fast being superseded by Dr. Pierce's "Fragrant Pellets."

A Freshman, intending to compliment a young lady by calling her a gentle lamb, said: "She is one mutton as is small."

Don't use any more noxious purgatives such as Pills, Salts, &c. when you can get Dr. Carron's Stomach Bitters, a medicine that moves the bowels gently, and cures all impurities from the system, and renders the blood pure and cool. Great Spring Medicine Co., A. P. 288

GARDEN parties, excursions, picnics are now the order of the day and night. The ladies are surpassing themselves these days in provided pleasant parties for the young folk. This is as it should be.

The district tent in which the Methodist congregation will worship while their church is being enlarged will be erected next week. It is probable the extension to the church will be very much larger than at first proposed.

THERE were fifteen hundred rigs present at the campmeeting at Fraser's in Ernestown on a recent Sunday. It is doubtful if such meetings are in the interests of religion or morality. The churches are without exception declaring against them now-a-days.

A horticultural curiosity may be seen in the orchard of Mr. Peter McEwen, of the Reserve. On the 11th of July an apple tree which is bearing well formed apples was in blossom for the second time this season and young apples are now taking shape for the second time this summer.

Few things have produced more talk than the paragraph in our last issue voicing the complaints of the community concerning the conduct of our young men. It has been well debated in all its bearings. It is but fair to state that the prevalent opinion is that the complaints were well founded. The more the pity.

Rev. D. O. Crossley, pastor of the Methodist Church, left on Monday last for Muskoka to spend ten days camping among the beautiful lakes of that region. He joins a party of twenty from Hamilton, Ingersoll and Mount Forest, among whom is his brother, Rev. H. T. Crossley, of the Guelph Conference.

Detective O'Leary, of Ottawa, arrested T. B. Isaacs at Trenton on Monday; he was the head of the gang of counterfeiters operating in Canada. It is safe to say that if Mr. Goldwin Smith had taken a dose of Egar's anti-bilious pills before leaving for England he would not have made such a consummate fool of himself by his peevish utterances about Mr. Gladstone, or by representing Canadian opinion on the home rule question. In England he is a loyalist; in Canada, an annexationist.

The next great event of the season will be the moonlight excursion on the "Quinte" on Tuesday evening, 20th inst. Davey's Island is the objective point. That fashionable resort will be brilliantly illuminated. Two hours will be spent there. The Rathburn Company Band and string bands will furnish music. The boat leaves the dock at 7:30 sharp.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Mark's Church cleared $180 by the recent lawn festival, a handsome amount which they will pay them for their efforts. Mrs. Finlayson won the elegant screen; Mrs. Edward Wilson became the lucky possessor of the "Ocean Wave" quilt; Mrs. Wallington secured the handsome cushion, and Mr. Tim. Gault is happy with those neatly executed wafers.

The Why states that, "A Mohawk chief with Orange colors, sailed down the coast after the arrival of the steamer 'Hero'." He was very large and every body gazed at him. "What lodge are you from?" enquired a reporter. "Then Chief" he said to both sides a bottle of Indian rum from his pocket, said he was an agent and not an Orangeman. The oil was, to his mind, the elixir of life.

Active on the maxim that it is well to strike the iron while it is hot, Messrs. A. A. Richardson and M. Oliver canvassed the merchants for subscriptions for water-works in the business streets. They met with success. The council furnishes a watering cart, and Mr. Benson Kimmerly's tender being lowest has been accepted. The population of Ireland at the present time is a little over 5,160,000, of whom, in round numbers, 1,500,000 are Protestants and 4,010,000 Romanists. The island contains about 20,000,000 acres of land, of which one-half is owned by less than 750 proprietors, each holding under 5,000 acres, fourteen over 50,000 acres, and ninety over 20,000 each. One hundred and ten land-lords hold more than 1,000,000 acres, or one-fifth of the soil of the whole country. Of the landlords who held in 1871 over 100 acres, 4,842 are non-residents and only 5,589 residents in the country.

The island contains about 20,000,000 acres of land, of which one-half is owned by less than 750 proprietors, each holding under 5,000 acres, fourteen over 50,000 acres, and ninety over 20,000 each. One hundred and ten land-lords hold more than 1,000,000 acres, or one-fifth of the soil of the whole country. Of the landlords who held in 1871 over 100 acres, 4,842 are non-residents and only 5,589 residents in the country.

The communication on the new road to Lonsdale will be read with much interest. We feel confident that the business men of Deseronto, as well as the Councils of Deseronto and Yendindaga, will act at once and present a request to the Indian Council to take immediate action for opening out the new road. It seems there is one hundred dollars in the hands of the Yendindaga and the immediate action for opening out the new road. THE TWO SEXES EDUCATED TO-GETHER.

E. R. Sill, in The Century, discusses the question, Shall women go to College? He answers in the affirmative. As to the further question, Shall the two sexes get this college training together? he says: "It certainly would seem natural and reasonable—unless some very serious objection to it is discovered—that the two sexes, growing up together in the family, studying together in the school, associated together all the rest of their lives in the work and play of society, should also receive their liberal culture together. It would seem an obviously unwholesome contrivance that should, for this single period of four years out of a lifetime, compel an artificial separation into two flocks: a scholastic nursery on the one hand, a scholastic nursery on the other. As if history had not plainly enough declared the results of such unnatural contrivances!
And the question forces itself on the mind.
Is not this whole supererogation of separate sex education a relic of dark ages? Is it not a part of the medieval plan of shutting women up in towers; a modified form of the Mohammedan custom of forcing them to muffle up their heads and peer out upon the world with one eye."—The Current.

THE STRAIN OF CITY LIFE.

Read the following facts with regard to Chicago—from 1852 to 1868, population increased 5.1 times what it was in the first period. The death rate increased 37 times.
The deaths from nervous disorders increased 20.4 times. Chicago is perhaps a fast place, but the figures are significant of the wear of city life on the nervous system.

Is not this strain on the nervous system a peculiarly American danger? To be sure, all brain-workers in all countries are liable to it, but in our country almost all influences increase the tendency. Under these influences we have developed national characteristics, showing in force and feature. We do things in a hurry. We are in haste to get rich. We are in haste to be wise. We have no time for exercise. We have no time for play. Both exercise and play are things that people often looked upon as a waste of time for adults, however good they may be for young children and young people. A boy must be a man before his time, and a girl must be a woman before her time, but must be a sober woman before she has entered her teens. It seems as if the battles of modern life (at least of modern city life) was a battle of the nerves. From nursery to school, from school to college, or to work, the strain of brain goes on, and strain of nerve—scholarships, examinations, speculations, promotions, excitements, stimulations, long hours of work, late hours of rest, jaded frames, weary brains, jarring nerves, all intensified by the exigencies of our school and city life. The worst of the mischief is that this strain falls most of all upon those from nature and circumstance least able to bear it —upon women. Public opinion, however, they on their exercising like men. Yet with a nervous system more sensitive than man's, they need the very exercises (out of doors) which, by a mistaken public sentiment, they are often forbidden to take. The healthy housewife is often depicted to a servant either because too hard for our American girls, or too much beneath them. —Popular Science Monthly for July.

BARDOLPH.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mr. E. Randall, of McDonald, spent a couple of days last week with friends in Prince Edward.

A. Keech, of Bardolph, has a new mower; it works first-rate.

Parties are all the go now; there was one at Mr. Huffman's last Thursday evening, and another takes place this week at Mr. Bogart's, of Gompert.

F. Hicks has refitted his house making several improvements.

N. H. Baker and wife spent last Sunday with Peter Hicks, of Bardolph.

F. Richardson, of Deseronto, is spending his vacation with his uncle, P. Hicks, at Bardolph.

A. Woodcock has purchased a new reaper; it is a dandy.

BETHEL.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

A rather serious accident happened on the farm of Mrs. Sine. On Tuesday last while a young boy was driving a horse rake the horse became frightened and the boy could not manage him; it ran away throwing the boy off and knocking him insensible for a time, but he soon recovered and the boy came to no harm, but the horse was not hurt, but the rake came to grief.

The youths of this enterprising neighborhood have formed a base ball club called the Bethel Juvenile base ball club, and the little fellows can be seen every evening in a meadow, with their baseballs and caps to match, their flags fluttering in the evening breeze, like old veterans. We expect to see them give a good account of themselves in the coming matches. I expect to hear of them challenging North Port some of those days.

All nature is once more blooming since the late rains, which have done wonders in reviving the almost parched crops. Everything is looking fine and a good prospect for an average crop.

TYENDINAGA RESERVE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Rumour says that Mr. Francis Claus has the agency for John T. Greathart's Superior Baking Powder. Mr. Claus is at present introducing the genuine article in Bearbrook, Russell County; his many friends extend their good wishes for the success of his undertaking.

Miss Kahnertishan has been very ill for the past week, but is now recovering. Mr. Jacob Brunt is erecting a new barn on his farm near Brant's wharf.

Chief Solomon Loft has been on the sick list for the last few days.

On Tuesday morning Peter and Josiah Brunt and David Smith, departed for Bald Mountains to have a good feast of whortle berries; it is hoped that they will return with Q. S. to treat their friends.

The committee appointed for the grand demonstration on the 1st and 2nd of Sept., will hold their next meeting at the western school house on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, and that every member is requested to come as there is much business on hand yet.

HAY BAY.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

I am sure Mr. Editor, you are anxious to hear the particulars of Hay Bay, they are generally so interesting. My first news is to tell you of an occurrence, I know you will think it the ablest you have ever heard of, which took place last Friday evening in another new house on this bay, and which you may be sure is a dance. It was given by one of our neighbors, and was attended in general, by old professing christians, young converts, young widowers, and of course by many other young people, whose general profession is to be contrary to Christianity.

It is really a pity that their cloven-footed master whom they serve faithfully did not make his appearance in their midst, and cheer them on a little later down the broad road which they have trodden so steadily and surely. Is it not wonderful, Mr. Editor, how low some people in this world will sink themselves; so very low, that the wild beasts of the earth can render them great help in lifting their present standing. We sincerely hope as maturity is gained, stupidity and ignorance will flee, and sense take its place. Where wrong is done ignorance is his.

Mr. Chas. McCabe is very ill, and reports say he is failing, but we hope reports will prove untrue and that he will soon arise to health and happiness once again.

In a real pleasing way, to see the ladies of this neighborhood, passing up and down these roads with their berry pails on their arms, which when they return home, are generally full as raspberries are plentiful here.

Harvest is again drawing near and I hope its growth will fully reward the farmers for their hard labor.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Thomas Hanley, who recently met with a serious accident, is progressing favorably under Dr. Rodger's treatment.

William Meagher, who has been in Belleville under the care of Dr. Murphy since he had the operation performed, is now glad to learn, doing well, and hopes are entertained that his leg will be permanently cured.

The Misses Cullen, of Bachelor's Walk, have returned home.

Mr. Thomas Cullen is about erecting his new house. Mr. George Cullen, of Londonderry, has obtained the contract.

Mr. Quickenbush has also accepted a contract for the erection of a house for Mr. Jas. Brennan 6th con.

Our genial friend Mr. Michael Gaffney the contractor, has finished the fine new barn which he has been erecting for Mr. James Meagher to replace the one burnt last summer. The barn is large and commodious with every convenience around it.

It is unnecessary to say that the work is well done, as Mr. Gaffney's reputation as a contractor is too well known around this part of the country.

Mr. Gaffney is also engaged erecting a fine barn for Mr. Stephen Colby.

Mr. Charles Mowerson, whose praises as a mower, reaper and engineer have been sung by the poet of the 4th concession, has been engaged by the McAuley Brothers this season. The McAuley Bros. are well and favorably known as good threshers, and have always given their patrons every satisfaction, especially last year with their famous "Wide Awake." With such a machine and Charlie for their engineer, they will, no doubt, meet with continued success.

The Football Club is the rage now a-days with our lads. The boys evidently believe in the old adage, "practice makes perfect."

Your correspondent at Marysville says that our Peter who carries the mail is always on the look out for pretty girls as passengers. We always thought Peter was a young man of good taste and discrimination. We have another Peter, however, who may often be seen coming from the north with his nice top buggy and black horse with a brand new set of harness evidently on business intent. He may sometimes be seen between the second and fourth concession. Peter is a young man of excellent taste.

After a long continued drought we have had plenty of rain. During the past week it has been a rather difficult matter to cure hay. The weather appears again to be getting settled. The rains we have had have done a great deal of good, and late sowing grain promises well. Our farmers are all full of picket bushing in from all directions.

The Rev. Father McCarthy was in Kingston last week attending a conference of the clergy.

Mr. John Brennan has purchased the Smith farm west of Mr. James Meagher's. Price $2,400.

The famous berry patch on the farm of Mr. James Walsh, Jr., Bachelor's Walk, since the raspberries began to ripen has been full of picket bushing in from all directions, principally girls with a sprinkling of old men, but since the rain as no harvesting could be done, many of the young men found time to go with the prize-winning object of assisting the young ladies. Some of the young ladies say they can do better alone than with a man. "It's not good for men to be alone." We hope some happy events may be noted in the future, and that the happy union of loving hearts may be cemented, even from picking berries together once in a while.

DEMORESTVILLE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

With the exception of occasional letter from your esteemed correspondent of Bethel but little has appeared in THE TRIBUNE from Sophiasburg; in the meantime our village life has moved on in its accustomed channels without anything specially noteworthy to record. Our village churches are pursuing their work with increasing harmony between them. Twice, within the last few weeks, has Mr. McKinnon, of the Presbyterian Church, supplied the pulpit for Mr. Ash, of the Methodist Church, and always to the delight of the people.

The Rev. David Wilson, of Nanapan, (familiarly known as "Scott's" Wilson) preached his last sermon in Demorestville on the morning, and on the Island (South) in the afternoon. Father Wilson has been a man of considerable repute in his day, and is generally esteemed by all who hold him in laborers in remembrance; and his ministrations on Sabbath reminded us of Sir E. Landseer's masterpiece, "There's life in the old dog yet." He may be assured of a hearty welcome when he comes among us again.

On Saturday last the Methodist Sabbath School were treated to an excursion to the famous Sand Banks.

Mr. Israel Hamilton after many years of fiscal service as superintendent of the school recently tendered, his resignation, and Mr. Charles Smith has been appointed in his place. Dr. Moore and Mr. Thomas Richards have been appointed to the charge of the bible class.

Mrs. Duke, wife of Mr. Richard Duke of Bethel, and we have been here from Michigan on a visit. Mrs. Robin's mother, Mrs. John Moran, lies at the point of death at her son's, Mr. David Moran, on the High Street and she probably the last opportunity she will have of visiting her absent mother on earth.

Mr. Clarence Robin, only son of Mr. J. H. Robin, and we have been here from Michigan on a visit. Mrs. Robin's mother, Mrs. John Moran, lies at the point of death at her son's, Mr. David Moran, on the High Street and she probably the last opportunity she will have of visiting her absent mother on earth.

Mr. Ash's brother's only child—a bright, promising girl of ten years. She died of the fatal diphtheria. Other members of the family were prostrated at the same time with the same fatal disease, but hopes are entertained of their recovery. One of the most terrible features of this visitation is that locality is that several, well advanced in years have been prostrated, and some with fatal results.

Farmers are unanimous in declaring Deseronto market the best in the district. They get better prices for their produce and are better treated by the merchants.

We have received from the Department of Agriculture a copy of the Dominion Guide Book a useful work which contains a list of the best farms in the Dominion.

THAT rickety platform and boardwalk in front of The Tribune office is naturally a source of annoyance to the public.

During the past week to pay that little bill at The Tribune office.

We have been shown some splendid specimens of Timothy grass on the farm of Mr. Ed. Wilson, 3rd. con. of Ernestown. Several stalks measure 4 ft. 8 in. in length, and some are heads 9 inches long.

Thousands of lives saved annually by the use of West's Pain King, the household remedy for chills, flu, summer complaint, dysentery, colic and cholera. Only 25 cents. Sold by W. G. Eggar, druggist.

The biggest cannon that Britain has or has ever had has arrived at Woolwich from Sir William Armstrong's factory at Elswick, Cumberland.

Manning the swells of the Jamboree they propelled their craft through the water in a manner which gained the plaudits of the assembled multitude.

The Gipsy carried a very large excursion party from Napanee to Picton last Friday evening. It was, however, a very disorderly element and considerable quarrelling.

Rowdies delight to swear and fight but we think that officials are failing in their duty to the public when they permit these things to occur without prosecuting the guilty parties.

A little more back-bone is required.

The express trains were on Saturday delayed by accident which happened at Ham's bridge, near Ernestown station. A broken axle derailed a car, and striking a small bridge, it piled six cars up in a delightful confusion.

One car of corn was damped in the creek and a considerable quantity lost. By six o'clock a new bridge was built and the bonded goods transferred from the derailed cars. No one was injured by the accident.

Several gangs of counterfeiters have been caught recently by the police at the corner of the 80 bill on the Merchants Bank have been found. A number of these bills are in circulation, and the counterfeit is such a clever piece of work that detection is almost impossible even by experts, the weakest point being a difference from the genuine in the green coloring of the bill. The public would do well to be cautious in handling bills of this denomination.

A trial order will convince the most sceptical connoisseurs of the superior excellence of the Big Star 50 cent Japan Tea.

SPARKS'S Great Royal Pavilion Show, which was billed to appear here last Wednesday, failed to connect, and the small boy has been in the dumps ever since. It appears it was found impossible to come to terms with the railway company and as neither party would yield the Circus remained at Napanee. The Kingston and other papers speak highly of the performance given by the company's clever mind.

Forepaugh will be at Belleville some time next month, when the quill drivers will perhaps organize an excursion and take us all along.

The first delivery of Fall Prints just opened at The Big Store.

EXCURSION parties call at our dock every day of the week and it would be an impossible task to count them.

It is said that the reason women are not better inventors is because they have such a dislike for new wrinkles.

The Varma commenced her Saturday trips to the Thousand Islands last week having a nice party for her first trip. With general Capt. Pore in command no more pleasant trip on one of the lovely boats.

A lady writes: "I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my family for years, and could not keep house without it. For the relief of the most important upon female weakness and irregularities, I consider it without an equal."

Rev. Mr. Hodgins, of Belleville, preached to the children of the Methodist congregation last Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. Crossley will conduct the services next Sunday.

The district tent will be soon pitched for future use.

The Trenton Courier states that there was an exciting race recently from Belleville to Trenton between the Quinte and Alexandria. Although the Alexandria had twenty minutes of a start, the Quinte came in twenty minutes ahead.

Not a particle of calomel or any other deleterious substance enters into the composition of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. On the contrary, they have used calomel and other mineral poisons as medicine find Ayer's Pills invaluable.

The members of the congregation and Sabbath school of the Church of the Redeemer will enjoy a sail down the bay next Tuesday. The star, Quinte has been engaged for the day and a pleasant time will, no doubt, be enjoyable.

IMO No other man can boast of the presence of so many crazy looking telegraph poles as those which disgrace the streets of Deseronto. One might suppose that the great municipalities planted them for the purpose of insulting our long suffering community. Why not call an indignation meeting of citizens to protest against such treatment?

At the Grand political picnic to be held by the Mohawk Nation in September, among other matters to be discussed will be the question of the purchase of the Dominion Franchise Act of 1885. Invitations have been extended to Sir John Macdonald, and Mr. Blake, Messrs. M. C. Cameron, Paterson, John White, Senator Plumb and many other politicians of note.

When you want a nice cooling drink ask for J. F. Williams' Glasgow Ginger Beer.

PERSONS troubled with Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza or similar affections of the respiratory organs will find it to their advantage to read the advertisement of Pavlov's Cigarettes in another column.

Wm. Stoddard is the sole agent for this wonderful medicine in Canada. It can safely be recommended to the public as a medicine which affords instantaneous relief.

Mr. Stoddard has a large number of flattering testimonials regarding its efficacy from well-known residents of Deseronto and vicinity.

SCOTLAND, the richest and most intelligent portion of the United Kingdom, cast its vote for Home Rule. The common school had been too long established there to permit electors to be diverted from the great question by side issues or sectarian prejudices.

Edinburgh, the modern Athens, went solid for Gladstone, defeating Mr. Goschen his most able opponent. It is in such times that we should wish that we could claim to belong to the Scottish race.

A correspondent writing from Waupoos says: "What promises to be one of the finest bays in the county was raised last Saturday on the premises of Milo Slavin, Esq., of Waupoos. Its dimensions are 44-00 ft. by a perpendicular of 50 feet to the peak. The frame is of the choicest timber and was prepared and erected under the skillful management of the contractor, Almond Delmage, Esq., of Milford. About forty neighbours assisted and the work was done by pulleys and horse power. Great credit was due Mr. Delmage for his ability in supervising the work, as well as for his enterprise, and we are mistaken if he does not make this building an ornament of its kind to the neighborhood."

The late rains have revived the face of nature and everything wears the most lovely appearance.

The fire announced to be held at Mr. Bedford's grove on Thursday next has been indefinitely postponed.

The English Church Sabbath School, of Napanee, held their annual picnic in the Mohawk Grove yesterday.

Over 150,000 logs belonging to the Gilmour Company have been hung up on the Moira waters.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the most effective blood purifier ever devised. It is recommended by the best physicians.

A philosopher has discovered that the reason why men succeed who mind their own business is because there is so little competition.

The sewer on Thomas street east of Second street is now nearly completed. It is cut through the solid rock and will drain an important area in that section of the town.

Gladstone is beaten, but that gives no assurance that the majority will be happy. The old man will be around to look after the funeral exercises. — Chicago Letter-Observer.

The night blooming Cereus in Mr. E. A. Bower's garden attracted much attention this week. The plant was found to have six or seven blossoms in full bloom.

A valuable horse belonging to Squire Bowen got caught in a wire fence yesterday morning, and in its efforts to escape cut its foot nearly off at the fetlock. The veterinary surgeon advised the farmer of its impossibility to save the life of the poor animal.

Sir John Macdonald is at present making his trip across the continent to British Columbia. He has been received with great enthusiasm at Winnipeg, Regina, Gleichen and other small settlements along the line of the C.P.R.

Thousands of usighly logs over which generations of Deserontonians have stumbled, and which constituted the crossing over Edward street on the west side of St. George street, have been removed.

It is fortunate that Richardson and Rayburn are good, steady citizens who carry neither corkscrews nor hatchkeys, or we would have the doleful task to perform some morning of fishing their cadavers out of the raging canal which gracefully winds past their residences on Thomas street.

BROTHER Jonathan is ominously silent all through these delivery trunks. Depend upon it Canada will be forced to pay a good round bill of damages for the arrest of the American mackerel schooners. No honor of knighthood awaits the Minister of Marine for the late naval actions on the Nova Scotia coast.

PROFESSOR Rudolph in a lengthy paper on the subject of "The Solar System," while he mass equaling in bulk 1,200,000 worlds like our own, having a surrounding ocean of gas on fire 50,000 miles deep, tongues of flames dancing and spouting more than 10,000 miles, volcanic forces that hurl into the solar atmosphere luminous matter to the height of 100,000 miles, and giving itself all the works belonging to our family of planets and holding them all in their proper places, attracting with such superior force the millions of worlds that surround it, and wandering in the faithless abyss; they rush helplessly towards him and fall into his fiery embrace.

At the recent high school entrance examination there were 209 candidates for South Hastings. At Belleville 150 candidates wrote, at Tweed 25, and Deseronto 34. Of this large number only 27 were successful, 20 at Belleville, 3 at Tweed and 4 at Deseronto. Of those that wrote at Deseronto the following were successful: the number of marks obtained being given: Orpal Henderson, 391—, prepared by Miss Fry, 111, Hunterford; Kenneth McEae, 391, Mr. Emerson, Deseronto; Annie McEae, 371, and Jennie Ryan 370, Miss Ryan, Tyendinaga; At Belleville, Mary Thompson, 452, taught by Lester Ross, Tyendinaga, also passed. The small proportion of successful candidates, due to the absurd character of the papers set by the examiners.

There is a general outcry against the character of the papers set by the examiners in the recent high school entrance examination. All the newspapers condemn the pedagogic millions who prepared such a series of absurd questions for the youthful candidates and admit there is no disgrace attached to those who failed. The examiners get all the blame but the department must accept the responsibility. The bureau of education has not been covering itself with glory of late years. The minister may mean well but he is surrounded with a number of red tape in capables who hamper him in all efforts to improve our schools. Nothing less than a clean sweep in the department at Toronto will suffice to free Ontario from the system which is crushing out the individuality of the teacher and otherwise proving itself reactionary.

Calling the ANGELS IN.

We mean to do it. Some day, some day,

We mean to slacken this fevered rush

That is wearing out your souls away;

And grant to our loaded hearts a hush

That is only enough to let them hear

The footsteps of angels drawing near.

We mean to do it. Oh, never doubt.

When the burden of daytime toil is o'er,

We'll sit and muse while the stars come out.

As patriachs sat at the open door

Of their tents, with a heavenward-gazing repeated working mellow the soil, makes sure of a good crop of grain and defends against winter killing. In case the season is dry—and it generally is, over a great part of the country—no more favorable time can be selected for digging drains with a view to improving swamps. If the actual reclaiming cannot now be pushed, the land may easily be dried, so that it can be grubbed and further ditched during the autumn and winter.

FALL PIGS.

It is doubtful if anything is gained ultimately by having sows farrow twice a year.

The sucking of two litters must injuriously reduce the sow, and the pigs are not properly nourished, thus injuring them. But when the spring litters are still-born, or lost shortly after birth, or, in some cases, when sows are too young to be bred to farrow in the spring, it is good policy to breed for fall pigs. But to make them as good as spring pigs they must have good shelter and the equivalent of green food. Swine shelters are more likely to be made too warm than otherwise. The swine lie close together, and their bodies are compact, so they require rather open shelter. Sheltered swine usually suffer more from foul air than from cold. Good ventilation is the necessary of a swine shelter. This must not be forgotten when constructing shelters for fall pigs, for because they are small, the shelter is likely to be too warm for them for mature swine, which is saying that it will be altogether too warm. They should have no litter in the shelter which keep them dry and protect them from wind. The equivalent of green food is easily provided, and it is not a more expensive food than grain. Turnips are a cheap crop of early potatoes or sweet corn has been removed from the land, or even on stubble ground. The small potatoes must be gathered up and boiled. A sack of rye will give green food until the snow and at intervals during the winter. The vegetable scraps may be saved and thus the pig can keep thriving through the winter.

DEMORESTVILLE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

On Saturday last the remains of the late William Howard, of Belleville, were committed to the grave in the Methodist Cemetery, Big Island; and on Sabbath morning the Rev. Hiram Williams, of Sydney, preached the funeral sermon to a large and deeply attentive congregation. The widow, whose maiden name was Allison, a native of Ireland, and a large number of her early acquaintances and friends came to testify their high esteem for the departed and their deep sympathy with the widow, who has been twice a widow within the last seven years.

On Sabbath evening the Rev. Nathan Howard, brother of the deceased took part in the service in the church here, greatly to the delight and edification of a large congregation. Mr. Williams, in his address, uttered some timely words of caution against the ostentatious display of modern funerals, and pleaded earnestly for reform in these matters.

Mr. Williams is engaged to preach the quarterly meeting sermon here on Aug. 8th, and on the evening of the same day will preach on the Big Island (South). Mr. Williams is a native of Big Island, and is held in high esteem among the people; but we venture to say has never received a heartier welcome by any class than since the union of the Methodist churches.

READ.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Your Hay Bay correspondent in last week's issue gave an account of a dance given by one of his neighbors, at which he said the company was composed of "old professing Christians, young converts, young widowers, and, of course, many other young people, whose general profession is to go contrary to Christianity." And he adds most charitably (?) "It is really a pity that their cloven-footed master whom they serve so faithfully, did not make his appearance in their midst and cheer them on a little faster, down the broad road which they are travelling so steadily and surely!" We wonder if this modern moralist ever heard of the Apostolic words, "Be sober, be vigilant, these three but the greatest of these is charity or love? It is not our intention to enter into the question as to whether dancing is wrong or not, but this we do say, that dancing under proper restrictions has order and decorum about it. Why does not this uncharitable judge of his neighbors, to be consistent, condemn the rude, rough and romping games, such as blind man's buff, post-office, forfeits, and other games of the same nature so often indulged in by professing Christians at their social gatherings. The kissing, hugging, romping and boisterous nature of such games by grown up men and women must be condemned from a moral standpoint. But if at a social reunion of young people a quiet holus bolus to the devil by our moral critic. Away with such moral claptrap, and let high-toned censor remember the words, "Judge not that ye be not judged."

Mr. Donald McEae, who has charge of the county roads in this township, has with his men been doing good work and improving the roads very considerably so far this season. He has done an excellent job on the sidewalk near Marysville at McGinn's hill. This portion of the road has been stoned, graded and well gravelled. McEae's Hill has also been improved and gravel spread on the road as far as the third line, advantage having been taken of the statute labor in this division. Some needed repairs have been put on the third concession near Mr. Jacob Eaton's and two new culverts built. The much needed improvement of the road has been put on the side towards the fourth concession has been commenced. At present Mr. McEae is engaged spreading gravel near Deseronto. Much credit is due to Mr. McEae for the practical and workmanlike manner in which the roads are repaired in his division. All his jobs are designed to last and not to require everlasting tinkering and patching to make the roads passable for ordinary travel. The county roads throughout this township cannot be excelled in the county.

The Football Club had a grand match last week. Much interest was evinced in the game, and a large and fashionable attendance. The fair sex viewed the herculean efforts of the players.

Mr. James McAuley, Mr. Thomas Murphy, and Mr. Joseph Lowry were visiting their friends here last Sunday.

Miss Agnes Barry is visiting her sister Mrs. B. Connors, on the 4th concession.

The Platted Knight of the post-office has his attention now devoted to the west. It is well for him to keep his eye on the setting sun.

The sound of the reaper is heard throughout the land.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Michael Ford was taken suddenly ill last Sunday with a stroke of paralysis. She was so ill on Tuesday that her relatives were telegraphed for.

A heavier dew during the past week has been very favorable for harvesting. On Sunday night and Monday we had heavy showers, a good deal of barley was cut and lying out, but the weather appears to have settled, and the thermometer is dancing again in the nineties in the shade.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO GIRLS.

Thirty-nine girls.
In ten years fifteen will have married.
In ten years seven of the fifteen will be widows dependent upon their own exertions for bread and meat.
In ten years fifteen of the remaining twenty-four will be sleeping beneath the sod.
And how far apart they will be sleeping! One in Georgia, one in California, one in Ohio, one in Virginia, another, perhaps, in a missionary's grave in China, another amid the ashes of the ancient Aztecs of Mexico, another—but only time will tell where they all will sleep.
In ten years, the nine I have not yet mentioned will begin to lose their sweetness and develop some of the sourness supposed to be inseparable from women that are destined to be old maids.
In ten years, not one of the thirty-nine but will have tasted of the bitterness that comes in time to all human beings.
Hope will be blighted, loved ones will be claimed by that same skeleton you behold just now, sorrow in a hundred forms will be experienced—indeed, to every one a surfeit of dead sea fruit will be offered.—[Atlanta Constitution.]

The OLD ADAGE that if it rains on St. Swithin's day it will rain for forty days appears likely to be verified this year. It rained on St. Swithin's the 15th inst., and has rained every day more or less since. St. Swithin was consecrated Bishop of Winchester, A.D. 888. He devoted himself with great zeal to the work of his Diocese, and died July 2nd, A.D. 892; was at his own request buried outside the church, where men might walk over him and where the rain might water his grave. Tradition says that since afterwards it was the custom of moving the body to a more venerable tomb, there came on violent rains which lasted for 39 days. From this came the popular idea that if it rains on St. Swithin's day, it will rain for 39 days after.
